Seven Cardiology Consultants of Texas Physicians Named To “Best Doctor” Lists

Cardiologists Cited as “Outstanding” by Peers

DALLAS (January 23, 2008)—Seven cardiologists from Cardiology Consultants of Texas have been recognized by their peers as outstanding practitioners.

Melissa Carry, M.D., F.A.C.C., Jay Franklin, M.D., F.A.C.C., Paul Grayburn, M.D., F.A.C.C., Jerrold Grodin, M.D., F.A.C.C., Shyla Thomas High, M.D. F.A.C.C., John Schumacher, M.D., F.A.C.C., and Robert Stoler, M.D., F.A.C.C., were named as “Texas Super Doctors” by Texas Monthly in its December issue. In October, Dr. Carry was also named “Best Doctors in Dallas” by D Magazine. Over the past several years, Cardiology Consultants of Texas has been well represented on both the Texas Monthly’s “Texas Super Doctors” and D Magazine’s Best Doctors in Dallas.

“The selection of our physicians by these publications shows that our peers recognize the level of professionalism and high-quality care the cardiologists at Cardiology Consultants of Texas provide to its patients,” said Dr. Schumacher, who is co-founder of the practice and co-chief of cardiology at Baylor University Medical Center.

According to Texas Monthly, its “Texas Super Doctors” are chosen through a poll of doctors and nurses across the state as well as through independent research.

D Magazine’s “Best Doctors in Dallas” is chosen through ballots issued to more than 6,000 doctors and medical professionals in the Dallas area.
